A & K Metaxopoulos & Partners takes full advantage of its 65 years of experience in intellectual property to "instil confidence in clients in the face of complex legal disputes. With a tailored service, the outfit secures optimal trademark protection, utilising a methodical approach to present key risks and solutions in a clear manner to clients and fellow counsel. Overall, the practice seeks to attain the best outcome and ensure a positive experience for patrons." Playing a pivotal role in the firm's success is managing partner Kriton Metaxopoulos, who spearheads the department. He leverages immense IP and commercial expertise to represent local and global players in big-ticket litigation disputes with cross-border features. Of WTR 1000 newcomer Marilena Nikolaraki, a patron enthuses: "Brilliant, precise, proactive and skilled, Marilena perfectly combines her knowledge of Greek law and those of other jurisdictions to forecast the best possible outcome of any legal action with reference to costs, deadlines and risks. She is a superb partner for coordinating complex matters involving multiple countries."
